ORDER RE DISCOVERY DISPUTE
JOINT REPORT NO. 1

[Re: Dkt. No. 43]

20 In Discovery Dispute Joint Report (DDJR) No. 1, plaintiff requests leave to conduct 21 jurisdictional discovery in connection with defendants' pending motion to dismiss for lack of 22 personal jurisdiction, and the parties apparently dispute the scope of discovery that properly may 23 be taken at this stage of the litigation. Defendants maintain that this is a decision that properly
24 rests with the presiding judge, arguing that there is no basis for general jurisdiction and that, any 25 discovery must be limited to specific jurisdiction. The docket indicates that the parties stipulated 26 that plaintiff's renewed motion for leave to conduct jurisdictional discovery could be set for 27 hearing before Judge Koh on May 8, 2014. (Dkt. No. 39). Whether or not jurisdictional discovery
28 should be allowed is a threshold question for the presiding judge to determine in the first instance.

1 There is no indication that Judge Koh has determined that jurisdictional discovery is necessary or 2 appropriate to resolve defendants' pending motion, and she has not referred that particular
3 question to the undersigned. Accordingly, the DDJR is denied, subject to whatever decision Judge
4 Koh may make on that issue.¹

¹ If Judge Koh allows jurisdictional discovery and defines its permissible scope, then any disputes over the requests that are propounded properly would be brought before this court.
